Poonam Arora

Ms. Poonam Arora has rich and vivid experience over 11 years in the field of quantitative and research subjects. She holds multidisciplinary postgraduate degrees in Mathematics (from Gujarat University), Insurance (from ICFAI University) and Management from IGNOU University with specialization in HR. She has been awarded the designation “C-RIM” from „Institute of Certified Risk and Insurance Managers (ICRIM)‟ in Feb. 2009. She is associated with reputed Institutes like ICRIM and III and is an active member of communities like ACM Tech and CSTA. Her areas of expertise are Research Methodology, Quantitative Techniques, Market Research, Managerial Statistics, Business Mathematics, Analytical Skill Building and other Numerical subjects. She has worked as an overall coordinator for various Institutes and have worked intensively for the growth of Academics and the importance of discipline in Institutes. She has delivered numerous guest lecturers in various reputed institutes and universities. She has written various national and international papers and presented them in numerous conferences. She has vast and intense experience of guiding over 250 post graduate students of different streams like: MCA.MBA, MSc and BE. She is an active member of the interview panel for recruiting faculties for technical rounds. She has worked as paper setter and external examiner for Gujarat University and Saurashtra University. She is known for guiding students in Mathematical modelling of real time applications of various topics in Statistics, Mathematics, Operations and Research.